Sub:- Community Projects - South Kanara - Agronomic trials - Fertilizers - Supply - Transfer to the custody of the Agronomic Assistant - Orders passed.

The fertilisers supplied for agronomic trials are at present stocked in the godown in which other fertilisers which are to be sold to the ryots are stocked. There is no separate compartment in the godown for keeping the fertilisers supplied for agronomic trials seperately. The fertiliser, Nitro Phosphate is converting itself into water and the water spread is likely to spoil other fertilisers stocked in the godown. The Government Agricultural Chemist also inspected this stock. The Agricultural Demonstrator who is in charge of the godown is feeling it difficult in view of his other duties, to give out small quantities of fertilisers to the Agronomic Assistant whenever required by him for agronomic trials. It is therefore ordered that the entire quantity of fertilisers supplied for free distribution to the villagers for agronomic trials be transferred to the custody of the Agronomic Assistant who is in charge of agronomic trials. The Agronomic Assistant will take separate godown and keep the stock in his custody and render proper accounts to the Government Agricultural Chemist. The Agronomic Assistant will see that the stocks are taken to separate godown within a week.

It relates to the request of the DA for sanctioning the renting of a godown at Mangalore at Rs 53/- pm for storing fertilisers in connection with agronomic trials at the Mangalore centre. Which is a C.P. area. It seems that the expn on this account should appropriately go to the Project Budget and not to "40 g Agri" as prepared by the D.A. It is understood that the Pub (R&D) Dept have already some previous papers on the proposal for the renting of a godown for the Scheme at Mangalore.
